VALEDICTORY.

This week closes my editorial career, Columbia County, for at least a number of years. On the 26th of December, 1868, I sold my entire interest in the BLOOMSBURG DEMOCRAT to Capt. C. B. BROCKWAY, editor of the Columbian, of this town. The two papers will be consolidated, first issue appearing under the new arrangement on Friday next, edited and controlled by tle present manager and proprietor of the Columbian. It will appear under the title of " The Columbian and Bloomsburg Democrat," greatly improved in its mechanical arrangements and other respects. It is the intention of the proprietor to spare no pains, with the facilities already in his possession, and yet to be acquired, to make this paper the neatest, best, and cheapest weekly in the State. In size, it is decidedly the largest paper in the County, and in the State there are few, if any, that surpass its dimensions. It is ably and carefully edited, and justly merits a liberal and hearty support at the hands of the Democracy. Mr. BROCKWAY is yet a young man, though a gentleman of large experience for one who has lived so small a number of years, and with his legal knowledge, coupled with his political and newspaper experience, it is to be hoped that he will be able to publish a all, and take rank among the highest papers in the State.

All pre-paid subscriptions will be filled by Mr. BROCKWAY; credit having been carried from our books to his in all cases where the time has not expired for which the paper was paid. If any mistakes have occurred, in making this transfer of credits, they can be easily rectified by calling and examining our books.

By some it may be enquired why this sale was made, and the consolidation of the two papers effected; to which question there are several answers, many of which are so well understood by the Democracy of the county that a full explanation is unnecessary: In the first place, there is no necestown; in the second place, the Democracy ficient to afford anything over and above a decent livelihood for three publishers; and, in the third place, I desire to disconnect present, that I might enjoy a little rest, after eleven years of editorial life, and settle and collect my accounts. If these reasons are not sufficient, I will be pleased

I had charge and control of the STAR OF THE NORTH in 1857, prior to the death of REUBEN WEAVER, Esq., and in January, discouraging circumstances, the subscription list being less than three hundred, the and myself a comparative stranger to the people of the county. In less than a year, with the assistance of my newly acquired friends, the subscription more than doubled, lished by me for over four years without the least interruption, until October 16th, 1862, when ABRAHAM LINCOLN "took us for a soldier." Not having plenty of "stamps," and our friends mostly being in the same fix, I concluded, as this was a short druft, that I would close the office. I did so; and having no friends in Canada, entered the army-served my time, got an honora- Indiana. ble discharge, and wasn't Abolitionized in the least.

In August, 1863, I returned from the army, revived the STAR and continued its pean missions. "Let us have peace!" publication until February, 1866, when the purchase of the Columbia Democrat was effected by E. R. IKELER, Esq., with whom we formed a co-partnership, and consolidated the two papers under the title of CoL-UMBIA DEMOCRAT AND STAR OF THE pated in the late rebellion. This includes NORTH. This co-partnership lasted some Jefferson Davis, John C. Breckinridge, Maseven months or more, when the interest of son, Slidell, Jubal Early, Jacob Thompson, Mr. IKELER was disposed of to Josian P. and a number of other Confederate leaders and agents who played a prominent part in SHUMAN, whose connection with the paper | the late war. The President selected a most continued until January, 1867. After his appropriate occasion for the publication of retirement the entire control and editorial this document, which returns to their homes labors of the paper fell upon myself. This and friends, so many exiles, and the act change in the establishment naturally disiointed matters more or less; and at the Southern people. At the same time the out-start of the second volume, after the government is relieved of the "great treasconsolidation, while I had exclusive control, the title was changed to that of BLOCMS-BURG STAR AND DEMOCRAT. Under that name. I have published the paper nearly two years ; and during this time I have seen some sunshine as well as cloudy weather. The life of a newspaper editor is not the most pleasant under the best of circumstances. an editor to madness unless he possess an impenetrable skull. 'Then, on the other hand, partially to make up for all these annoyances and perplexities, the editor's heart is occasionally made glad by the presentation of baskets of strawberries, apples grapes, and at proper seasons a fat gobbler besides, "free tickets" of admission to all the puppet shows that travel the country.

It will be seen, however, that all these pos

ess very little of the substantials of life. In parting with the DEMOCRAT I do not propose to leave the county. 'Too maily of my best days have been spent here among the Democracy for me to start in search of a new field of labor.

I shall ever hold all those with whom have acted during past political struggles in high remembrance, and it will be my greatest pleasure to be able, at some early day, to reciprocate whatever of countenance and favor I have received.

W. H. JACOBY.

Gone up-the old Democrat has really busted—its patrons will no longer hall its appearance with smiling countenances. The thing is virtually dead."—Republican Can this "really" be so? that the old DEMOCRAT is dead! 1/ho ever heard of the thing being busted? What does the astute editor mean? By some people it might be thought that the Demosthenes of the Republican was trying to poke fun at the retiring editor of this lournal, but we hope that is not the case. It would come with rather bad grace from that quarter. The former editor of the Republican made an amicable and satisfactory sale of his office, just as we have done, and does it naturally follow that he, too, is "busted"? journal which will meet the expectations of Sensible people in this end of town think

We have yet to learn that the new editor of the Republican charged his predecessor with "roguery" when he disposed of his establishment. O no! there was no 'roguery' in that transaction-it was legitimate, honest and fair, and the whole Republican party were expected so to view it. Whether they have done so the subscription list of that paper might be taken as the best evidence. Since the sale of the DEMOCRAT and its consolidation with the other Democratic paper of this town, we have not met single individual save the fugleman of the Republican, who expressed any dissatisfaction with the arrangement or claimed that we owned him and had sold him out-

However much the "old Democrats" of the county may have admired our paper for its consistent, independent and straightforward course, they never admitted that they mity for two Democratic journals in this belonged to us, nor that we had any claims upon them further than to expect from them of the county do not furnish patronage suf. an honest and faithful support to the paper as patrons. The Democrats of this county are not yet ready to become merchandisc nor to be owned and controlled by one man or and any set of men. For the Republican myself from the newspaper business at party we are unable to speak; but we might infer from what their editor prints in his paper, that the party to which he belongs are sold and dealt with as "merchandise." If it is so, it is a bad state of affairs. Those who make up that party are, then, subject to explain more fully to all who may call to become the property and dupes of a very great set of seoundrels. The longest purse then will always own them. Save us from ever belonging to such a party.

GRANT'S CABINET.-It is thought that Gen. Grant cannot find men enough of the Administrator's sale. This was done under same kind to make a harmonious cabinet. -A lively and factious cotemporary, the Concord (N. H.) Patriot, says he is determined that it shall be a 'unit'-is bent on 'peace,' advertising and jobbing patronage small, and his 'bobbing around' from Dan to Bersheba and back again, and 'swinging round the circle' from Washington via Boston to Chicago, is said to be not only to 'avoid the politicians and office seekers,' but to find uniform material for his cabinet. To cut and the advertising patronage was made the 'Gordian knot' and make a sure thing quite encouraging. The STAR was pub- of it, some bright genius has suggested the following:

AMNESTY PROCLAMATION. - On Friday last, President Johnson issued a proclamation granting, unconditionally and without persons who directly or indirectly particiwill no doubt give satisfaction to a large majority of the Northern as well as the on trial," the prosecution of which was likely to bring up unpleasant questions to be decided.

THE editor of the Republican, in his leader last week, says: "The stability and permanence of our free institutions 'depends' upon the intelligence of the people.' Yes, these things do "depends" a great deal on this very same matter; and some

To our brethren of the press we now, on our retirement from the chair editorial, tender our most earnest and sincere thanks for the many courtesies, personal and professional, which we have received at their hands.

Tus "Rounion of the Officers of the Ar mies of the West," at Chicago, culminated in a most disgraceful scene. The "reunion" was followed by a banquet, at which liquor was used to excess, and the "high-toned, gentlemanly officers" drank to beastly intoxication, finally climbing upon the tables, shouting, yelling and throwing the dishes at each other. The Cincinnati Commercial warns them against a repetition of such scenes, if they wish their "reunions" to be attended by their former distinguished generals. These roystering drunkards are the "loil" shoulder-strapped upstarts who were too dignified to invite the rank and file to share in their "reunion." Such is shoddy aristocracy!

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS reward will be paid to the person who will furnish a correct and intelligible translation of the editorial in last week's Democrat, entitled COOL - Re-publican of last week.

Into what language does the editor of the Republican desire the article to be translated? The negro dialect would probably suit him best, but the editor of the DEMOCRAT not being a proficient in that so-called language, and the editor of the Republican evidently not understanding English, the offer of a reward comes from an appropriate quarter. Let the editor of the Republican have the assistance of his friends, for he evidently needs it. Improvement in either the quantity or quality of brains has not bech manifested in the management of that establishment since the recent change.

money market would have been seriously charged to that event. Every Radical newspaper in the country would have dwelt upon the fact, and, what is more, their readers would have believed them. Now, suppose they go to work and explain these little difficulties in a philosophical manner. Suppose the Republican editor of this town tries his hand in explanation of these difficulties!

> THE statement of the shooting of Mr. Lambert, in West Beaver Township, as given by the Post last week was not quite correct. Mr. Lambert cocked the gun and handed it to his son, telling him to be careful as it went off easy. He then went around into the entry of the stable to chase the hogs so the boy could shoot them. The gun went off accidentally, the ball passing through the weatherboarding and through a partition, entering the side of the father and passing through the heart. He walked about twenty feet yet, fell down and expired. When the gun was discharged the father and son were in positions where it was impossible to see each other. Mr. Times.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PROSPECTUS. "THE AGE." Por 1869. CIRCULATE THE DOCU-MENTS. A Daily and Weekly Democratic Journal in Philadelphia! Improvements in every Department, Political, Literary, Commercial, Financial, and Agricultural. The publishers of The Age beg to call the attention of the Democratic and Conservative masses to the Dafly and Weekly issue of their popular Journal. The general dissemination of sound political information must result in great good to the Democratic party. Wherever Radicalism sends its poison, let us be prompt in furnishing the anti-dote!

We have just finished an exciting political struggle, and the Democratic party, vigor-we have just haushed an exciting pointers struggle, and the Democratic party, vigorous and undismayed, is now ready to begin the fight again, and to fight on until victory crowns our efforts.

One of the most powerful energies in securing victory is the Democratic press of the country, and every man who can afford to subscribe for a Democratic newspaper should at once do so.

THE DAILY AGE

Will continue to be in the future what it was in the past—the earnest defender of
